GRADUATE STUDENT CONNECTION

APSA has a number of resources to offer graduate students, including:

Dissertation workshops at the Annual Meeting devoted to specific subfields with two panels each with a thematic focus
Online career resources including eJobs, data & reports on employment, salaries, placement, trends, etc.

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION PROGRAMS

Ralph Bunche Summer Institute is an intensive five-week program held at Duke University designed to introduce the world of doctoral study in political science to undergraduate students from under-represented racial and ethnic groups.

Minority Student Recruitment Program is a collaboration between undergraduate and graduate programs in political science that connects undergraduate students from under-represented backgrounds who are interested in, or show potential for, graduate study with graduate programs interested in recruiting diverse cohorts of doctoral students.

Minority Fellows Program is a fellowship competition for individuals from under-represented backgrounds applying to doctoral programs in political science.

APSA Mentoring Program connects interested graduate students and junior faculty with political scientists who have made themselves available as mentors.
